NATURE OF THE PROCESSED DATA

BROWSING DATA The IT systems and software procedures aimed at ensuring the operation of this website shall acquire, during their ordinary operations, certain personal data the transmission of which is implied by the use of Internet communication protocols.

Such data are not collected for the purpose of having them connected to certain identified Data Subjects; though, due to their own nature, they may, through their being processed and associated to certain data held by third parties, allow the identification of the relevant user(s).

This class of data includes the IP addresses or the domain names of the computers used by the users connecting to the websites, the addresses in URI (Uniform Resource Identifier) notation for any requested resources, the time of the request, the modalities used to submit the relevant request to the server, the size of the file obtained as a reply thereof, the code indicating the status of the server reply (successful, error, etc.) as well as other parameters relevant to the operating system and the IT environment of the relevant user(s).

These data are used only for the purposes of obtaining anonym statistical information on the use of the website and to monitor the proper operation thereof, and shall be erased immediately after the relevant processing. Such data may be used to assess liability, should any IT crimes be committed against the website.

DATA VOLUNTARILY PROVIDED BY THE USER(S)

The express, voluntary and optional delivery of any e-mails to the addresses indicated in this website implies the subsequent acquisition of the address of the sender, as required to reply to any requests, as well as of any other personal data which may be included in the message. Specific summaries of the relevant policies shall be reported or may be viewed, from time to time, in the website pages provided for certain services to be rendered at request.

COOKIES

Our website uses technical and third party (Google) cookies. The website shall not acquire any personal data of the user(s) at this regard.

No profiling cookies are used, and no cookies are used to transmit any personal information.

The use of the so-called 'session cookies' (which are not stored on a long-lasting basis in the users' computer and shall disappear once the browser is closed) is strictly limited to the transmission of session identification data (i.e., certain random numbers generated by servers), required to allow a safe and efficient browsing of the website.

The so-called 'session cookies' used in this website allow us to avoid the use of other IT techniques which could jeopardize the secrecy of the users' browsing, and do not allow the acquisition of any personal data implying the identification of the relevant user(s).

Google Analytics with anonymized IP:

The website uses the 'Google Analytics' system, through which it collects information (only in aggregated form) on the number of users and how they visit the website.

Google and its wholly controlled affiliates, as autonomous Data Controller(s), may store and use, in full compliance with the provisions of Google Privacy Policy (which may be found at www.google.it/policies/privacy and Opt Out), any information acquired during the use of the website by the user(s).

Browser set-up to accept / refuse cookies

The users are allowed to set-up their browser so as to accept or refuse all, or only certain, cookies. Your browser shall allow you also to eliminate any cookies already stored in your computer. The relevant menu options vary from one browser to another, also based on the relevant version:

PLACE OF PROCESSING

The data shall be processed by the Data Controller at its administration office in Via Mattiauda 9/7, Savona.

DATA RECIPIENT

No data obtained through the web service (i.e., the cookies and browsing data, as specified above) shall be communicated or divulged (without prejudice of the relevant communication to any courts or law enforcement agencies, if required). Any data shall be processed by personnel properly entrusted in writing with the relevant data processing task (administrative staff and personnel in contact with the public, irrespective of their being employed or not by the Company, and who may also act as system administrators and, in such a case, shall be appointed as such, marketing personnel, irrespective of their being employed or not by the Company, trainees, data processors and their staff, entrusted with regard to the specific field concerned by the relevant request(s), personnel entrusted with the management of the website, irrespective of their being employed or not by the Company) only provided that the processing is required to perform their duties and is made solely by doing the operations necessary to perform such duties. Such persons may also be considered Data Processors (including any third-party companies performing shipping, marketing, and server storage and management activities). Such third-party companies may process the data also through their staff, properly appointed in writing, who shall perform the same activities and process the data for the same purposes as the processors appointed by Adam Shipping and Chartering Srl. The data provided by the user(s) may be communicated to the persons entitled to be notified thereof pursuant to the applicable laws or as required to ensure that the Company may enforce its rights before any competent bodies.

STORAGE TERMS

The data shall be processed for the time required to ensure the performance of the service required by the user(s) or with regard to the purposes indicated herein. The user(s) may request in any time that the processing be interrupted, or the erasure and/or limitation of any data, provided that such requests shall in no event be contrary to the storage obligations set forth by section 2214 of the Italian Civil Code.

VALIDITY OF THE POLICY

Should any new laws and regulations on this matter be enacted, any classes of cookies be updated or any technical innovation occur, these events may imply the need to amend this policy. Therefore, this policy may be amended from time to time. The users are therefore invited to read this page regularly.

As the state of improvement of any automated control mechanisms does not prevent any faults and malfunctioning thereof, we hereby point out that this document, published at <http://www.adamshipping.it>, is the "Privacy Policy" for this website and shall be subject to update.

INFORMATION NOT INCLUDED IN THIS POLICY

You may request in any time any further information on personal data processing by contacting the Data Controller using the relevant contact information.
